

Galli-Curci Will Sing Outdoors In Hollywood Bowl

Thursday evening, June 5, will be a memorable one in the annals of Southern California musical history, when Amelita Galli-Curci, the most feted and popular coloratura soprano of the generation, sings in the Hollywood Bowl, Los Angeles. Out under the stars this brilliant star herself, accompanied by the Hollywood Bowl Symphony orchestra, Alfred Hertz conducting, will thrill thousands of music lovers.

She has chosen four operatic arias: the Mad Scene from "Lucia" in its entirety, with flute obligato; the Polonaise from "Mignon," the Bell Song from "Lakme," and Caro Nome from "Rigoletto." These will be given with full orchestral accompaniment, and in addition to the vocal solos there will be orchestral numbers to complete the program.

COMING MOVIE ATTRACTIONS

Reginald Denny achieved a worthy reputation for fast action in the early rounds of the famous "Leather Pushers" series, in which he was starred by Universal. "The Abyssal Brute," the film version of Jack London's novel, again witnessed Denny in a burst of speed.

Reg galloped a lot of fast furlongs in "The Kentucky Derby," thus adding to his reputation for the symbol of fast action.

Now comes a picture in which Denny "strides" through the picture at a hundred miles per hour. All previous attempts at speed rate as "slow motion" in comparison to the whirl of "Sporting Youth," the Universal-Jewel production in which Denny is starred, coming next Sunday and Monday to the Torrance theatre.

Denny is noted in the Hollywood film colony for his excessively fast driving. He is a wonderful driver and likes to play tag with the best racers. But his craving for speed was entirely satisfied during the filming of his latest feature. It is a story of automobile racing, written by Byron Morgan, author of the famous "Roaring Road" stories published in the Saturday Evening Post.

BACK AT HIM

An artist whose picture of a group of angels had created a sensation came across a pavement artist. "I am So-and-So," he said. "I painted the picture of the angels of which everyone is talking. Your work shows promise, but what is that fish you are drawing?" "A sturgeon, sir," replied the man. "But have you ever seen a sturgeon?" "Have you ever seen an angel, sir?"

ATTRACTED

"Tommy," said a young woman visitor at his home, "why not come to our Sunday school? Several of your little friends have joined us lately." Tommy hesitated a moment. Then suddenly: "Does a red-headed kid by the name of Jimmy Brown go to your school?" "Yes, indeed," replied the new teacher. "Well, then," replied Tommy, with an air of interest, "I'll be there next Sunday, you bet. I've been looking for that kid for three weeks, and never knew where to find him."
